

AFGS SURPLUS BOOK SALE 2016

AFGS is offering for sale many of our surplus books. All of the books offered are duplicates of books we already have on our library shelves.

Once you have reviewed the list, and if you wish to order any of them, please send the list of books to RDBeaudry@afgs.org, making sure to use both title and book number. We will compute the postage and contact you with your final cost.

You may then purchase the books by sending the full amount, either by check or money order, to AFGS, PO Box 830, Woonsocket, RI 02895.

If you wish to purchase by credit card, please remember to include the expiration date and security code along with your number.

Quantities are limited, so this offer is strictly first come, first served.

For buyers outside the US, purchases can only be done by credit card. No checks or money orders will be accepted.
